

Young Professional: The Future Leaders

*Emily Stoler-Region 9 Representative
Tyler Ganus- Chapter Liaison*

 YOUNG PROFESSIONALS
SWANA Connect, Develop, Achieve

- Recruitment, development and involvement of young professionals are critical to the future of SWANA
- SWANA formed the YP Group to engage and enrich young professionals in the solid waste industry
- SWANA provides a financial benefit for YP and students to ensure accessibility to resources
- Regional Representatives and Chapter Liaisons are crucial to foster YP participation at the local level

Introduction

- 5 individual chapters within Region 9
- Promote regional collaboration
- Increased networking opportunities

Region 9

- Committee
 - Tyler Ganus, Emily Stoler, Stas Zinchik
 - Openings still available
- Goals and Objectives of Committee
 - Increase YP participation in SWANA
 - Enhance professional development in YPs
 - Provide networking and training events
 - Mentor Match
 - Engage students
 - Solid Waste Design Competition-Deadline October 5, 2020

Great Lakes Chapter YP Committee

Recruit Support from YP Alumni

- Emily Stoler-Regional Representative

- epeters@sebclandfill.com

- Tyler Ganus-Chapter Liaison

- tganus@sebclandfill.com

feedback

Questions?