REPORTS

Buildings & Grounds

Trustee Simko reported that she has received quotes from both Lindsley Roofing and John Nevin Jr for the replacement of the roof on the pavilion located in the Erie Canal Park. After reviewing all quotes that were provided and comparing the work that will be done the Board came to the decision that John Nevin Jr provided us with the best quote at $6,500.00 for the work that he will be doing.

Trustee Simko announced that the Fall Festival went great and had a lot of visitors this year.

Water & Sewer

Nothing new at this time.

Public Safety

Officer Healy announced that they have replaced the Pepper Spray that was previously used with Crotega Repuls Spray, which is also non-lethal self-defense spray.

Streets & Drainage

Nothing new at this time.

General

Mayor Brim announced that the crews will be working on Lawrence St until Wednesday this week then will be on Mechanic St and N. Hamilton Rd.

Mayor Brim reported that the Tower Ladder Truck blew a hydraulic line, the company came out and fixed it the next morning. Of course it is under warranty, however, it may have been that the hose was not long enough to begin with.

Mayor Brim stated that we have received bond money of $350,000.00 for the Tower Ladder Truck. The general fund has been reimbursed the $250,000.00 and $100,000.00 to the Jordan Volunteer Fire Dept. to reimburse what was borrowed from prior to receiving the bond money.

Unfinished Business

Nothing at this time.
