

3. If a Bible is held improperly, a penalty of ten points will be incurred.
4. A continuous infraction of the rules or unbecoming conduct will disqualify a contestant from further participation. The decision rests with the judges.
5. Bible Sword Drill is properly judged with a minimum of three judges.
6. The timekeeper should use a regular stopwatch if available. A timepiece with a large second hand may be substituted when necessary.
7. The contestant with the highest number of points shall be declared the winner. The contestant with the second highest number of points shall be declared the runner-up. In the event of a tie, three additional items will be used in a tie-breaking drill. All rules apply as in the original drill.

PROGRAM OF AWARDS

Recognition through the use of appropriate awards is important for building and maintaining interest in the competitive activities. Winning contestants in Sword Drill deserve to be rewarded for their efforts. Recognition should begin at the local level and continue through the district, state, and national levels. A complete program of award medals is available from the National Youth Conference. First place medals are gold, second place silver and third place bronze. Variations in the color and design of the ribbon indicate the level of competition.

Local: Blue District: Blue/White State: Blue/White/Blue

When ordering medals, please give the level of competition and the placement 1st, 2nd, or 3rd.
