Patterson/Cunningham and Blake/Clevenger Teams Claim Inaugural Kickoff Best Ball

Mother Nature cooperated nicely with sunny skies, mid-sixties temperature and no frost delays—not exactly bad conditions for late April in Mid-Michigan. Tournament Director Scott King was very pleased with the turnout of nineteen teams in the Open Division and another four in the Senior Division in GLAGA's inaugural Kickoff Best Ball.

The four-ball stroke play event was contested at Hawk Hollow Golf Course on April 27, 2004. Smith Patterson and Rush Cunningham carded six birdies, off-set by a lone bogie, to post a five under par round of 67, easily outpacing the field in the Open Division. The teams of Alex Coss/Karl Bohnhoff and Brian Pauli/Tony Keim finished joint second with rounds of 70.

Jerry Blake and Ron Clevenger won the Senior Division with an even par round of 72. Jim Rapp and Howard Clevenger finished one shot out with a costly finishing bogie, when a par would have forced a sudden-death playoff.

The Champions received crystal pilsner glasses, gift certificates for Hawk Hollow merchandise and certificates from The Garland Resort, GLAGA's 2004 Event Sponsor.

Jonathan Pauli Captures Spring Stroke Play; Jerry Blake Wins Again in Seniors Division

Cool, damp conditions greeted a full field of competitors at GLAGA's Spring Stroke Play Tournament held at The Emerald at Maple Creek on May 1 and 2, 2004. St. Johns' Jonathan Pauli avenged last year's sudden-death loss to Tony Keim with a two-day total of 146 (73,73) for a two stroke victory over first day leader Russ Cunningham and Josh Orlor who posted 148 totals over the challenging course.

Jerry Blake closed with an impressive 73 for a 150 total, which bettered Larry Wuetrich by three strokes in the Seniors Division. Stu White rallied with a final day 74 to claim third place.

Matt Friend lead the First Flight with a 36-hole total of 152 (79,73), which was five strokes better than a trio of players, Paul Hughes, Charlie Green and Karl Bohnhoff. In the Second Flight, Brian Pauli (Jonathan's elder brother) won the first hole in sudden death over Doug Hankey. Both players finished with 164 totals. Tim Russell claimed third place with a total score of 165.

Winners of each Open Division Flight and the Senior Division received GLAGA Championship crystal pilsner glasses. GLAGA awarded merchandise gift certificates to top finishers

GLAGA NEWS BRIEFS

GLAGA Tour Championship in 2004 Timber Ridge Golf Course will be the site of GLAGA's season-ending event, The Tour Championship. New this year is a season-long points competition which will determine the "GLAGA Tour Champion." The Champions (Open and Senior Divisions) will be crowned after the GLAGA Tour Championship to be held September, 11 and 12. This event is a regular members' event, but will feature a "tournament inside a tournament." The entry form is available in this newsletter and on the website at www.glaga.org.

Gulf Shores (AL) Golf Association is GLAGA Tour Championship Sponsor GLAGA has secured sponsorship of the 2004 Tour Championship series from the Gulf Shores Golf Association, a not-for-profit organization that promotes golf activities for area courses. GSGA will provide gift certificates to the top finishers (determined by accumulated points) for the Open and Senior Divisions that are redeemable for greens fees and other expenses at Gulf Shores, AL area courses. More information will be available in future newsletters and on the website.

Off-Season Golf Junkets to Gulf Shores Planned for Members. GLAGA is working on details with Gulf Shores Golf Association for group trips in late fall and early spring. Preliminary plans call for three or four-day trips with various forms of competition, at discounted rates. Let a Director know if you are interested. Stay tuned for more information.

On Line Membership Application and Tournament Registration in 2004 New this year is the option to process your GLAGA membership application and tournament entries on line. Go to the www.glaga.org home page and follow the simple instructions. You may register and pay the membership dues and tournament entry fee using Pay Pal, or print out the form and mail in payment. If you use the mailed payment option, your tournament entry is not accepted until receipt of payment.

Russ Cunningham Joins GLAGA Board of Directors; Will Lead Junior Golf Activities. Russ Cunningham has joined the GLAGA Board of Directors and will lead our Junior Golf activities. Russ, one of Michigan's outstanding amateurs over past years, has served us in an advisory role since late 2002, and we're delighted to have him involved more formally as a Director.

GLAGA to Award 114 Gold Scholarships for 2004 on June 3 2003. In collaboration with the Lansing Youth Recreation Fund, and the City of Lansing Parks and Recreation Department, GLAGA has offered "GLAGA scholarships" to area youth in the form of playing passes at Lansing municipal courses. The program has grown steadily over five years and will enable 114 area youth to play golf all summer long at steeply discounted rates. Portions of GLAGA's operating revenues and member donations fund the scholarship program.

Garland Resort Renews as Event Sponsor The Garland Resort will again serve as the major event sponsor this year. Each GLAGA event will award Garland Resort gift certificates (total value of $500 per event) to top finishers in each Division and Flight. Please support this important sponsor.

BY THE RULES

By Terry Kildea

May 2004

The USGA and the R&A jointly established sweeping changes to the rules of golf, which took effect January 1, 2004. For a complete list of the changes, (which affected rules, decisions, definitions, equipment specifications, appendices, and the rules of amateur status) visit www.usga.org. Click on Rules of Golf and print the press release.

I would like to cover seven changes that I feel may most likely pop up during your next G.L.A.G.A. tournament, your member/guest, or that hot money match with your evil brother-in-law.

1. Removal of loose impediments on the line of putt. In the past, this could only be done with the player's hand or clubhead. Now, any means is allowed, provided that the player does not test the surface, alter the line of putt, or unduly delay play.
2. Before 1-1-2004, if you moved a loose impediment within a club length of your ball, through the green, and the ball subsequently moved, you incurred a one stroke penalty and the ball had to be replaced. This is no longer a penalty UNLESS your action causes the ball to move.
3. The committee now has the authority to disqualify a player for a serious breach of etiquette.
4. There is now a definition for a tee. A "tee" is a device designed to raise the ball off the ground. It must not be longer than 4 inches and it must not be designed in such a way that it could indicate the line of play or influence the movement of the ball. Penalty for use of a non-conforming tee is disqualification. Note that if you elect to use a tee, it must be placed in or on the surface of the teeing ground. You are not permitted to place your tee in or on an irregularity of surface, a pile of dirt or sand, or anything else raised above the surface of the teeing ground.

5. The non-cash value of a prize for an amateur has been raised from $500.00 to $750.00.
6. If a player invokes rule 3-3 (electing to play a second ball in stroke play due to doubt as to procedure), the player must report the facts of the situation to the committee before turning in his scorecard. Failure to do so results in disqualification.
7. The definition of a "lost ball" has been changed in part b of the definitions section. Previously, a ball was lost if the player had dropped a substituted ball. Now, under part b, the original ball is not deemed lost until the player has made a stroke at a substituted ball.

So, for 2004 the good news is: the rule book has been amended for clarity. The bad news is: the rule book, at times, still lacks clarity. If you have a question regarding the rules of golf, please feel free to e-mail me, Terry Kildea, at tkildea@aol.com. There is a good chance that I won't know the answer, but I will know where to get it for you.

Play well, have fun, and take time to stop and smell the flowers along the way.

GLAGA Tour Championship

Timber Ridge September 11-12

The All City Match Play and All City Championships are open to all amateur golfers in the GLAGA area. All other events are reserved for GLAGA members.

This year all events will feature "Open" and "Senior" Divisions. Participants born before 1955 are eligible for the Senior Division. In Team events both players must be born before 1955 to play in the Senior Division.

New this year is the season-ending GLAGA Tour Championship. This event will be open to all GLAGA Members, not just those in the running for the GLAGA Tour Championship that will be determined under a point system.
