Castellani Survives Spartan Showdown To Win All-City Title

The 2012 All-City Championship came down to three holes between three Spartans, on the third and final day of the tournament. And when the last putt had been holed out at Hawk Hollow, Carson Castellani – an Okemos High grad now in his third year on the Michigan State golf team – had captured his first Greater Lansing Amateur Golf Association title.

Castellani captured top honors by shooting three straight rounds under par (67-69-70) for a winning total of 10-under, three shots better than defending champion and former MSU golfer Nathan Clark. The third member of the final group – Chris Mory, who had just completed his Spartan career – finished five back at 211.

“It’s nice to win a home tournament where you know all the people, and it’s fun to beat your friends,” Castellani told the Lansing State Journal. “I was wearing down the last few holes. I hadn’t had a lot of good results this summer, so I wanted to play well ... to hit the ground running into the college season with something a little more positive.”

In the Senior Division, Jerry Blake overcame a six-shot deficit to force a playoff with Mike Tungate. It was a birdie by Blake on the second extra hole that sealed the victory, his third career Senior All-City title. Blake carded rounds of 66-78-72 while Tungate shot 65-73-78.

The following players also won All-City titles in 2012: Dugan Murphy (1st flight, 223 total); Matt Wait (2nd flight, 230); Rex Foster (3rd flight, 239); Michael Martinez (4th flight, 246); Erik Briggs (5th flight, 252); Larry Wuetrich (Senior 1st flight, 235); and Tom DePottyondy (Senior 2nd flight, 247, won in playoff).

Russ Cunningham shot rounds of 70 and 71 to win the Spring Medal title by two shots over Nathan Clark at The Emerald, while Alex Jones was three shots off the pace at 144. In the Senior Division, Mike Raymond carded a two-day total of 141 to defeat Randy Mastin and Larry Meirndorf by six shots. Andrew Brace defeated Carson Castellani 3 and 1 to win the Championship flight of the Jersey Giant Match Play at Groesbeck Golf Course while Randy Mastin defeated Jim Jakubowski on the 19th hole to win the Senior Match Play title.

The two-man team of Tommy Gut and Chris Beltzer won the Buddy Buster title at Royal Scot with a combined score of 146. In the Rehmann Classic Best Ball at Eldorado, the twosome of Hinkle/Davis took down top honors with a 27-hole score of 97.
