As Attorney General, I am committed to assisting crime victims, strengthening victim service programs, and partnering with our Commonwealth's and County Attorneys to conduct victim-centered investigations and prosecutions. Our Office of Victims Advocacy works tirelessly to support victims of crime by providing resources like the Kentucky Crime Victim Bill of Rights Handbook.

According to the latest study from the Bureau of Justice Statistics, approximately 6.4 million United States residents, age 12 or older, were victims of violent crimes in 2018, and 16,038 violent crimes were reported in Kentucky that same year. These statistics are unacceptable, and we must do all we can to protect Kentuckians and decrease the occurrence of violent crimes in our communities.

If you or someone you know has been a victim of a crime, please know that we are committed to helping you, and we will advocate on your behalf. We will work hand-in-hand with law enforcement and prosecutors, and we will do everything we can to ensure that you are given the assistance, advice, and resources you need during this process.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to our Office of Victim Advocacy at (502) 696-5312 if you need assistance or have questions about the material included in this handbook.

Best regards,

INTRODUCTION

In 1986, the Kentucky General Assembly enacted a series of laws, later designated as the “Kentucky Crime Victim Bill of Rights,” which recognized the integral role that crime victims play in the criminal justice process and specified rights for victims of crime and responsibilities for prosecutors, law enforcement agencies and the Attorney General in regard to ensuring those rights. These laws also formally recognized, defined and specified the roles and responsibilities of a victim advocate. The Crime Victim Bill of Rights applies to cases involving a specified list of criminal offenses but can be applied in cases involving crimes not specifically listed with consent of the presiding judge.

This handbook is designed to provide general information about your rights as a victim of crime, the roles and responsibilities of the professionals involved in the proceedings, and resources that might be available to you and how to access them. If you have questions or otherwise need assistance please feel free to contact the Office of Victims Advocacy within the Office of the Attorney General at 502 696 5312.

Victim Advocates

Each victim advocate shall perform those duties necessary to ensure compliance with the Crime Victims' Bill of Rights (KRS 69.350 (3) and KRS 15.760 (6)(c)).

In all court proceedings, a victim advocate, upon the request of the victim, shall be allowed to accompany the victim during the proceeding to provide moral and emotional support. The victim advocate shall be allowed to confer orally and in writing with the victim in a reasonable manner. However, the victim advocate shall not provide legal advice or legal counsel to the crime victim in violation of KRS 421.570 and 524.130 (KRS 421.575).

Defense Attorneys

The Constitutions of the United States and Kentucky require that all persons accused of a crime have a fair trial. The role of the defense attorney is to provide representation for an accused person and protect his or her right to a fair trial. The defendant, or his attorney, has the right to question all witnesses at trial or in other court proceedings (except grand jury). A victim or witness is not required to discuss the crime outside of court unless served with a court order.

The Office of the Attorney General

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

For Child Victims of Crime

Speedy Trial and Special Needs

The Court shall:

- Set a hearing date within ten (10) days of a motion by the Attorney for the Commonwealth, when the victim is less than sixteen (16) years old and the crime is a sexual offense. If the motion is granted, the trial shall be scheduled within ninety (90) days from the hearing date (KRS 421.510)

- Consider and give weight to any adverse impact a delay or continuance may have on the well-being of a child victim or witness
- Implement measures to accommodate the special needs of children which are not unduly burdensome to the rights of the defendant (KRS 26A.140).

The court may, upon request of the attorney for either party and upon a finding of compelling need, grant closed circuit or videotaped testimony of the child (KRS 421.350).

Special Advocates

If the court believes that the health, safety, or welfare of a victim who is a minor or is legally incapacitated would not otherwise adequately be protected, the court may appoint a special advocate to represent the interest of the victim and to exercise those rights provided for by KRS 421.500 to 421.575. Communication between the victim and the special advocate shall be privileged (KRS 421.500(2)).

For Victims of Juvenile Crime

Notification of Release

Members of the community who request notification through V.I.N.E. (Victim Information and Notification Everyday) shall be notified of the release or escape of an incarcerated person from a facility for youthful offenders. (KRS 196.280).

As required by KRS 610.060(6), the court designated person or agency must make an attempt to notify the above mentioned persons of the time, date and place of all court proceedings.

Each district court shall, by rule, establish the means of notifying a victim of court proceedings, and assign the person or agency responsible for making the notifications. The failure of a victim or other specified person to receive notice shall not delay the proceedings in the case.

Access to Records

Unless a specific provision of KRS Chapters 600 to 645 specifies otherwise, all juvenile court records of any nature shall be deemed confidential and shall not be disclosed except to the child, parent, victims or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing. For Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

Protective Orders (EPOs and DVOs)

Any person who is a victim of domestic violence inflicted by a family member (e.g. spouse, former spouse, parent, child, stepchild, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, son- or daughter-in-law, spouse's parent, spouse's grandparent, or a spouse's sibling) or member of an unmarried couple (e.g. couples who are living together or who formerly lived together, or unmarried couples who have a child in common or allegedly have a child in common) and who is a resident of Kentucky or who has fled to Kentucky to escape domestic violence may file a petition for a domestic violence order in the district court in the county of her or his usual or current residence.

The petition is filed on standardized forms provided to the person seeking relief by the circuit court clerk. All petitions requested, completed and signed by persons seeking protection must be accepted, filed and taken immediately to an available judge. No fee may be assessed upon the victim for either the filing of the domestic violence petition or the service of the petition upon the respondent/alleged perpetrator. All Kentucky courts are required to provide twenty-four (24) hour access to emergency protective orders.

Victims may register to receive notification when a protective order is served on a respondent by registering with the VINE Protective Order System (VPO). To register with VPO go to www.registervpo.com. The case number located on the protective order is required as well as the Respondent's last name and the county in which the Order was filed.

Interpersonal Protective Orders (IPOs)

Any person who is a victim of violence and abuse inflicted by someone with whom the person is:

- a victim of dating violence and abuse
- a victim of stalking;
- a victim of sexual assault; or
- an adult on behalf of a victim who is a minor otherwise qualifying for relief such as law enforcement officers and Commonwealth's or county attorneys. All petitions requested, completed, and signed by persons seeking protection under this chapter shall be accepted and filed with the court. All Kentucky courts are required to provide twenty-four (24) hour access to these orders.

Victims may register to receive notification when an interpersonal protective order is served on a respondent by registering with the VINE Protective Order System (VPO). To register with VPO go to www.registervpo.com. The case number located on the protective order is required as well as the Respondent's last name and the county in which the Order was filed.

Notice of Attempt to Purchase Firearms

KRS 237.100 requires the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet to make a reasonable effort to provide notice to the petitioner (victim who has obtained a domestic violence order) that the respondent (perpetrator) has attempted to purchase a firearm. This notification only applies to petitioners who:

- Obtain a domestic violence protective order issued or reissued on or after July 15, 2002;
- Obtain a domestic violence protective order that involves a respondent who is prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm (18 U.S.C. sec. 922(g)(8)); and
- Provide the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet or the contracted private entity with a request for notification.

(See VINE Protective Order at page 16 for more information).

Pretrial Release of Offender

Before pretrial release can be considered for someone arrested for offenses as defined in KRS Chapter 508, (including assault, menacing, wanton endangerment, terroristic threatening, criminal abuse, stalking), or for sexual offenses as defined in KRS Chapter 510, (including rape, sodomy, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct, indecent exposure), or for being in violation of a protective order (as defined in KRS 403.720 and 456.010), the court or agency having authority to make that decision shall review the facts of the arrest and detention and determine whether the person:

- Is a threat to the alleged victim or other family or household member
- Is reasonably likely to appear in court

The court shall make findings, on the record if possible, concerning the determination made in consideration of pretrial release, and may impose conditions of release or bail on the person to protect the alleged victim of domestic violence or abuse and to ensure the appearance of the person at a subsequent court proceeding. The conditions may include:

- Prohibiting the person from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic violence or abuse against the alleged victim or other family or household member;
- Prohibiting the person from harassing, annoying, telephoning, contacting or otherwise communicating with the alleged victim, either directly or indirectly;
- Directing the person to vacate or stay away from the home of the alleged victim and to stay away from any other location where the victim is likely to be;
- Prohibiting the person from using or possessing a firearm or other weapon specified by the court;

If conditions of release are imposed, the court imposing the conditions shall issue a written order for conditional release and immediately distribute a copy of the order to pretrial services. The court shall also provide a copy to the person arrested or charged upon release. Failure to provide the person with a copy does not invalidate the conditions if the arrested or charged person has notice of the conditions.

If conditions of release are imposed without a hearing, the arrested or charged person may request, and upon request the court shall hold, a prompt hearing for the court to review the conditions. Any person who violates any condition of pretrial release orders is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

Access to Conditions of Release

The victim (as defined in KRS 421.500) of the defendant's alleged crime, or an individual designated by the victim in writing, shall be entitled to a free certified copy of the defendant's conditions of release, or modified conditions of release, upon request to the clerk of the court which issued the order releasing the defendant. The victim or the victim's designee may personally obtain the document at the clerk's office or may have it delivered by mail.

VINE Notification Services

NOTE: This program consists of three (3) different services. You must register for each service separately.

NOTE: When registering for notification by phone for any service please keep in mind the following:

- The inmate/respondent will NOT know you have registered to be notified.
- VINE gives immediate notification when an inmate is released. Do not be startled if you receive a late night phone call from VINE.
- Calls will be made every 30 minutes until notification is acknowledged by the registered person.
- Entering the correct PIN is the only way to stop VINE notification calls.
- If you are a victim and do not have a telephone, give the phone number of a relative or close friend.
- DO NOT give a telephone number that reaches a switchboard.

NOTE: Do not depend only on the VINE notification systems or any other program for your safety. If you feel unsafe you should take appropriate precautions.

VINE System (Offender Status)

VINE is a free, anonymous, computer-based service that provides the public two important services: information and notification. VINE will tell you if an offender is in jail or prison and will give you other important custody information. VINE will also let you provide a phone number and/or an e-mail address where you can be notified automatically when that offender is released, transferred, escapes or has an upcoming parole hearing.

Registering with VINE (Offender Status). Call 800-511-1670 from a touch-tone phone. If the offender is in custody, you can register to be notified when the offender is released. Enter the phone number or numbers where you want to be reached, including area code, followed by the pound (#) key.

When VINE asks, enter a four-digit Personal Identification Number (PIN) that you choose. Pick a number that will be easy to remember, write the number down and keep it in a safe place. When VINE sends a notification, you will be asked to enter the PIN. This will confirm that you received the call and stop additional calls.

To register for email notification, go to www.vinelink.com and click on the state of Kentucky. You can search for the offender by name or identification number. Once you locate the offender, you can enter an email address or phone number where you would like to be notified if the offender is released, transferred or escapes.

VINE Court Service

VINE Court Service is a free, anonymous, computer-based telephone and e-mail program that provides victims of crime two important services for upcoming court cases: information and notification. This service is available statewide on all misdemeanor and felony cases.

You may call the VINE Court Service to hear information on a specific court case. You may register a phone number or e-mail address where you want to be notified when there is an upcoming court hearing or a scheduling change.

For detailed information regarding the case, contact your local Circuit Court Clerk. To view an online docket, you can visit Kentucky Court of Justice at <http://kcoj.kycourts.net/dockets/>

Please note that it is the responsibility of the registrant to keep up with his or her case number, including trailer number if applicable, and to keep the registration current.

Registering with VINE Court Service. Call 800-511-1670 from a touch-tone phone and follow the instructions. You can also register for a court case online with the Kentucky Court of Justice at <http://courts.ky.gov/Pages/VINE.aspx>. When searching for a court case, you can register your phone number to receive updates on court hearings. Enter the phone number where you want to be reached, including area code, followed by the (#) key, and you will receive updates when they become available.

When VINE asks, make up a four-digit Personal Identification Number (PIN) that will be easy for you to remember, write it down and keep it in a safe place. VINE will ask for the PIN when it calls you. When VINE calls, listen to the message then enter your PIN when asked. Entering the PIN lets VINE know that you received the call, and will stop the service from calling you again.

VINE Protective Order

VINE Protective Order (VPO) is a free, anonymous service that allows petitioners to access information about their protective order (EPO, DVO, IPO), including the status of the order and reminders about upcoming court hearings pertaining to the protective order. VPO provides petitioners of protective orders access to information and notification about their order, including: Type of Order, Issue Date, Services Status, Service Date, Expiration Date, Attempt to Purchase Firearm, Hearing Date/Schedule Changes, along with order terms and conditions.

Federal law, commonly known as the Brady Bill, prevents certain people with Domestic Violence Orders or Interpersonal Violence Orders against them from buying or having guns or similar weapons. Kentucky law allows victims with Emergency Protective Orders (EPO)/Domestic Violence Orders (DVO)/Interpersonal Violence Orders (IPO) to be notified if the person their protective order is against (respondent) tries to buy a gun or similar weapon.

VINE Protective Order is now incorporating the Brady Bill Notification to make petitioners of the WPO/DVO aware that the respondent has attempted to purchase a firearm. Just as VPO makes a notification on the status of an order, reminders about upcoming court hearings, and expiration date of the order, it will also notify if a respondent attempts to purchase a firearm.

The petitioner will receive an "Attempt to Purchase" notification if the following criteria is met:

- The petitioner or his/her children have a Domestic Violence Order issued by a Kentucky Court or registered with a Kentucky court clerk.
- The DVO is still in effect.
- The order is: against an intimate partner, or against his/her own parent, or on behalf of petitioner child against his/her parent.

To obtain information from VPO you will need to have your case number ready. You can find it on your petition (application form) or protective order (e.g. case number 13D123456-001).

Registering with VINE Protective Order. Call 800-511-1670 from a touch-tone phone and press two (2) for protective order information. When asked, enter a telephone number where you can be directly reached and a four-digit personal identification number (PIN) that you choose. Choose a number that will be easy to remember, write it down and keep it in a safe place.

When you receive a telephone notification, you will be asked to enter our PIN, followed by the pound (#) sign, to hear the notification and to confirm that you received the call.

If you have registered but have not heard that the order has been served after four days, contact your victim advocate or county sheriff's office. More information about how to find the respondent may be needed.

To Check the Status of a Protective Order. Call the toll-free Kentucky VINE Line at 800-511-16709 from a touch-tone phone. The search for the status of a protective order, press two (2) for protective order information. Enter the case number followed by the pound (#) sign. Use the numbers and letter on your keypad. If you do not have a touch-tone phone, simply wait on the line until you are connected to an operator.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION & COMMUNITY NOTIFICATION (MEGAN'S LAW)

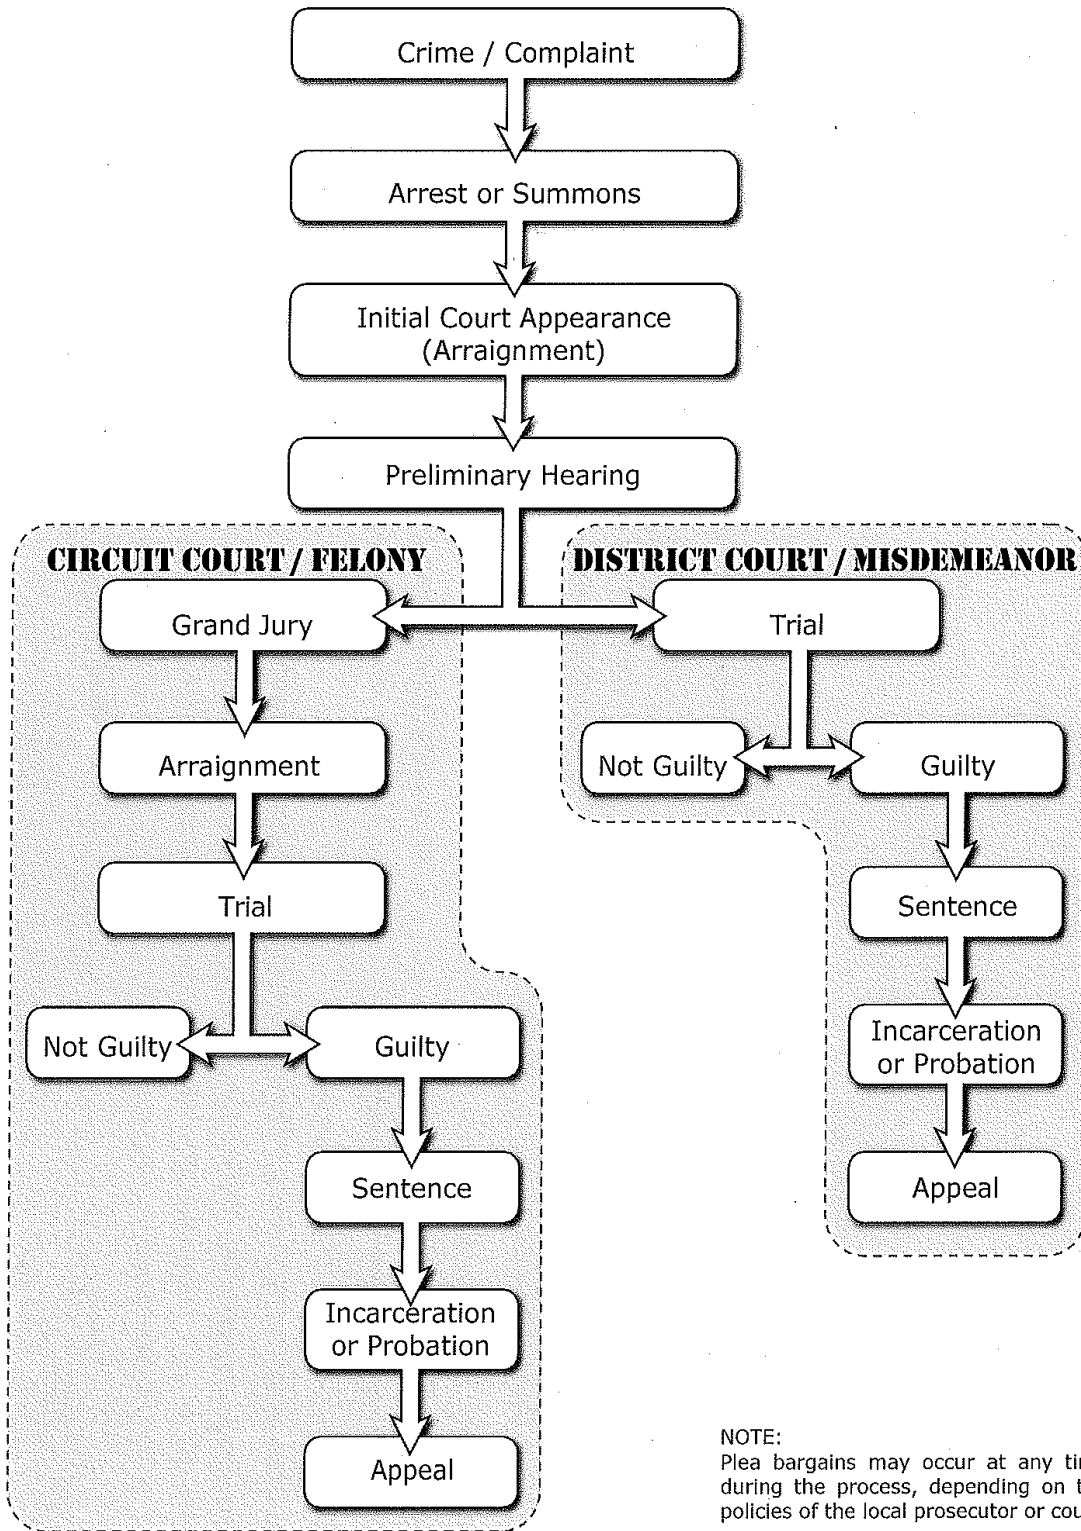

Victims of Sexual Offenses and Victims of Crimes Against a Minor

Kentucky's Sex Offender Registration Act, sometimes referred to as "Megan's Law," requires certain sex offenders to register with the probation and parole office in their county of residence. The Kentucky State Police have established a website, which is accessible to the public, containing information on all offenders who are required to register.

Offender information which may be included on the Web site are the offender's name including any lawful name change together with the previous name, age, race, sex, date of birth, height, weight, hair and eye color, photograph, aliases used, residence, a brief description of the crime or crimes committed, the registrant's conviction, the elements of the offense for which the registrant was convicted, whether the registrant is currently on probation or parole, and whether the registrant is compliant or noncompliant. No information identifying a victim may be included. The Sex Offender Registry web address is <http://kentuckystatepolice.org/sor.htm>. If you do not have access to the Internet, call (877) 994-9961 for a location in your county that offers public access to the Internet.

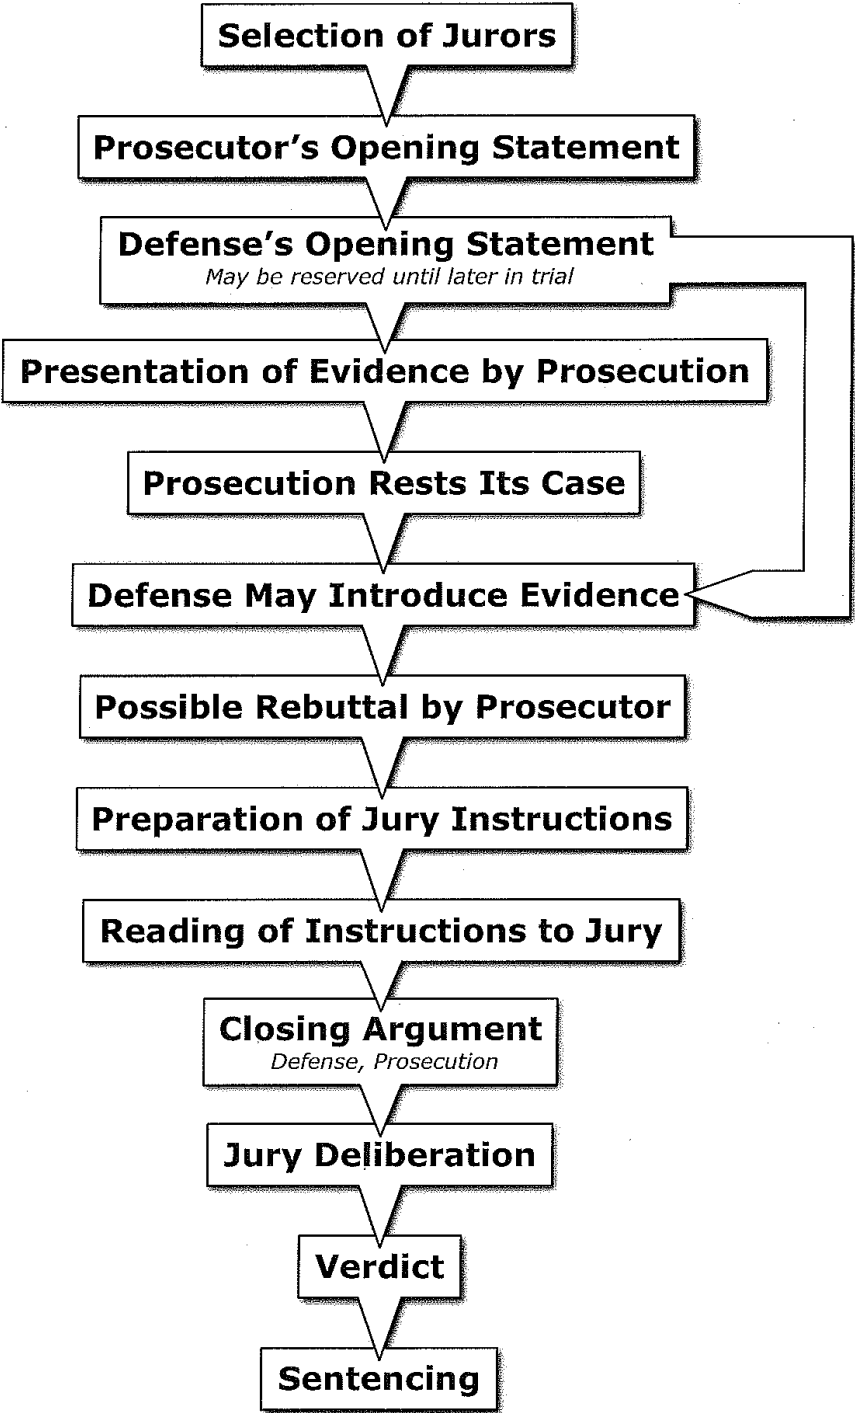

The Kentucky State Police has also established the Kentucky Sex Offender Alert Line. Similar to VINE, the Sex Offender Alert Line allows anybody to register for automated notification when a sex offender moves into an area. To register, call (866) 564-5652 and enter your telephone number and ZIP code. Once registered, the system will call you whenever a sex offender moves into the ZIP code you have specified and you can then visit the Sex Offender Registry site to obtain information on that sex offender.
