The Sunflower

Fort Leavenworth Spouses' Club Newsletter

Thank you to everyone who attended our 90's Throwback Themed Dining In this past Saturday night. It was a fun evening celebrating the special bond of military friendship. I was so great to see everyone's creativity come to life. The Dining In Committee and Table Leaders worked very hard to make this event a success. I want to thank all for them for their time and effort. I hope everyone has as fun a night as we did!

In other FLSC news, Egg My Yard is returning this year. Place your order today and let our bunnies do the work for you this Easter. We are offering Saturday night porch drop off and Sunday morning yard delivery. All money raised goes to Scholarships and Community Grants. Orders can be placed until March 23rd.

About me

My husband and I have 4 girls: Brylee, Scarlett, Adaline and Austyn. We also have one cat, Louis! I am a photographer and own a studio in Leavenworth. I don't have much spare time, but if I did, I would love to spend that time running (maybe to the ocean). I also enjoy hiking, reading and going to concerts!

About Me

Hi, I'm Angela. My husband Danny is a logistics Officer in the Marines. He has been serving for 11 years. We have two children, Colton (8), aspiring Ocean Cleaner, and Blakelynn (5) future Cheerleader, and horse painter. We also have two dogs. Moxie is a 30lbs mutt. She had been my buddy through any sort of stressful or life changing events. She is turning 11 this Fourth of July. Bailey is a golden retriever with an old soul. She was born on Thanksgiving in 2020, and was a wonderful addition to our family. In my spare time, I try to get a workout in or listen to a good, helpful book.

Fun Facts

- ♥ My husband and I met 6 hours away from home just to find out we lived 15 min away from one another and had some mutual friends.
- ♥ We love going to KC Mavericks hockey games!
