

Edinburgh Arrival & Sightseeing

Private Transfer to Edinburgh Hotel

Welcome to Scotland! After landing at Edinburgh Airport, complete customs and immigration formalities. A private transfer will escort you and your luggage to the hotel.

Edinburgh Castle

Stop for a guided tour of the imposing Edinburgh Castle, perched high above the city on volcanic rock. The castle originally was the home of king and queens, such as Queen Margaret, Mary Queen of Scots, and James VI. It evolved into a military base, and held prisoners of war. Today, the Castle is one of Scotland's most famous Castles and houses the crown jewels, the stone of destiny, and the National War Museum of Scotland. It is also an Edinburgh World Heritage Site.

Royal Mile

Walk through this medieval thoroughfare that runs from the Castle to Holyrood in the heart of historic Edinburgh. Overlooked by towering tenements, explore the interesting nooks and crannies, and the fascinating 'closes' (little side alleys) of the Royal Mile, some of which offer spectacular glimpses over the city. There is a whole catalogue of things to see and do along the way.

Royal Yacht Britannia

Stop to visit the Royal Yacht Britannia, once the royal yacht of Queen Elizabeth II. Learn about the history of Royal Yachts and see exhibits and photographs of Britannia's intriguing history.

Edinburgh at Leisure

The remainder of the day is free to explore Edinburgh and you can choose from a wide variety of activities. For example, you may wish to visit the Scottish Storytelling Centre, which is a vibrant arts venue with live Scottish storytelling. You also may want to visit the John Knox House established in 1470, making it the oldest medieval building in Edinburgh. You could stop at the Tartan Weaving Mill, right off of Edinburgh's Royal Mile, to see the inside of a working Scottish mill. Before you leave, you can even dress up in ancient Scottish costume and have your photo taken. Tonight, you may like to dine at one of the many fine restaurants or pubs scattered throughout the city.
