RE: Jason Flores' Appeal DATE: August 1st, 2022

As part of the appeal's process, the following serves as written notification of the CCAC Board decision on July 28th, 2022. Also included isa list of conditions that you will be expected to meet.

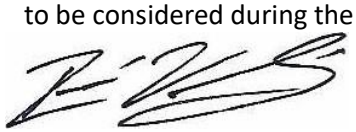

Based on a majority vote, the Board decided to reinstate you with the following conditions: - Member shall be placed on probation for a period of two years (2022 and 2023 seasons).

- Member shall forfeit playoff eligibility while on probationary status.
- Member shall not hold any position in the chapter, other than member, for a period of five years. This includes no Board positions, no Committee positions, whether elected or appointed. - Member shall make an apology to the Chapter membership for having quit on them. He will be expected to read a prepared statement approved by the Board. The apology will have to be sincere without any glorification of himself. There shall be no straying from the prepared statement. It must be completed for the August General Meeting.
- Member must act professionally at match sites and keep social interactions with the coaches, players, students, spectators, and school staff to a minimum.
- Member shall notify appropriate authority when attendance to training or meeting will be missed in an appropriate timely manner and in accordance with current guidelines.
- Member shall use email (or any other form of communication, as established by the Chapter) as the standard business format for communicating with the Chapter and its members, - Member shall participate in chapter activities such as quizzes, surveys, etc.
- Member shall pay all fees and fines in a timely manner while on probationary status. - Member shall go through an evaluation of his expected areas of improvement such as drastically reducing his socializing with coaches, players and staff.
- Member shall meet all the requirements for a member in good standing while on probationary status.

Failure to meet these conditions shall result in termination of your membership.

If you do not agree with these conditions, you will then have the opportunity to continue with the appeal's process and present your case to TASO.

Your 2023 application for membership will be reviewed when submitted in accordance with Section 3_1.1 of the CCAC Policy Manual. Meeting of all conditions and overall performance as an official will be some of the criteria to be considered during the review process.
