

Who Are the Literacy Kids?

The Literacy Kids are a fictional group of seven middle school students who study together and work hard to maximize one another's learning. The students also serve as Early Learning Partners for preschool children in their community. The middle schoolers use their time, talents, and interests to develop learning resources that make learning fun for their preschool partners. Their preschool personas are also the main characters in picture books for young learners.

Quentin

Lexie

Zoe

Jen

Ted

Piper

Mario

The Literacy
L
Kids™