

This may be your first time detoxing or cleansing your womb. You may have trauma from physical, sexual, or disease to your womb. Here at Seanjari Preeti, our focus is on cleansing and education. When doing your cleanse, you should abstain from unprotected sex. The waste from your womb space should not be released on your partner. Please be safe and love your womb first! There is nothing new under the Sun, what you suffer from, most of us do, and now, we can choose another route for soothing and healing. Once your kit arrives you can start with the Soap Salve Honey and Tea until your period has ended.

DO'S & DON'TS:

Do Continue using the Soap, Salve, Tea, and Honey until it runs out. Do track your Ovulation and your Period and keep notes. Don't use any other soap or moisturizer during your cleanse, nor any other detoxing or herbal products while using Seanjari Preeti Products. Don't have unprotected sex during your cleanses unless you're in a committed marriage and your partner has detoxed his scrotum. Don't allow the detox or discharge to happen in your panties. Keep your vagina clean and balanced at all times. Don't insert your pearl until you've washed and moisturized thoroughly. Please watch the videos on feeling your cervix, you MUST get the pearl to your cervix to cleanse the womb properly.

SWALLOWING THE PEARL: the pearl is a ball of herbs, when swallowed, it detoxes your intestines and provides nutrients to the absorption tract. Unravel string and cotton from the ball of herbs (pearl). place the ball of herbs between two spoons and crush the ball of herbs (so you can swallow it easily). Swallow the herbs along with a good beverage, water, or juice. Drink fluids throughout the day while eliminating your bowels. It's possible to release bowels for 12 hours. If you become lightheaded during this time, eat a cracker or raw vegetable. dehydration can occur. You can swallow a pearl once a week. please be gentle with your body, do not force your bowels. and with any herbal supplement, speak with your doctor about it. having a good diet and workout routine will also aid in a healthy digestive tract and weight loss. You can ingest any Real Yoni Pearl.

How often can I cleanse - You can detox every week. Only you really know your body, you may cleanse 2x a month when first trying it out and change that to 1x every 3 months, or every 6 months. If you are detoxing for fibroids and you release them, you can stop that type of pearl detox. Every month after your cycle is a perfect time to cleanse your womb and vagina of residual. The Yeast and Alkaline Pearl is great for that.

How many cleanses should I do for a specific ailment

- Although we don't give an amount to CURE you, the dosage chart is on the website and the amounts are based on whether you have trauma for years at a time. My pearl still looks the same after removal is that normal - No, in this case, you didn't keep your pearl in long enough or have it at your cervix. When used properly, a RealYoniPearl comes out soft and covered with dead tissue.

How soon can I do my second cleanse

- Ideally the next week but if your cycle starts you can wait till afterward. Can I use this if I have had a hysterectomy - If you had a partial ( you have your cervix, place the pearl there, if you have ovaries, be sure to get PCOS pearls) you can still detox, but without a cervix, you must remove the pearl after 72 hours and douche after 7 days. Douche Bottles are available on the website.

Is the mesh on the pearl

supposed to stay on - Yes it is, but if you plan to swallow the Pearl, remove it from the mesh and crush it in a spoon prior to swallowing it. How soon after giving birth, miscarriage, or abortion can I use this - After your 6 weeks postpartum, you can use a fetal trauma tightening pearl. If you had a miscarriage or ectopic pregnancy, please consider the TTC pearl for future family planning.

Is frequent urination or passing bowels normal

- Yes some women may experience this cleansing effect. Some of the herbs are anti-inflammatory, and some are stimulants. The herbs will relax your intestines and your bladder releasing fluid and waste. If you experience diarrhea, stop using the pearl until diarrhea clears up. I've noticed my skin clearing up after using this, why so - When inserted into the vagina the herbs are absorbed into the WHOLE body, allowing it to be beneficial to your skin.

Can I use the Yoni Steam and Pearls at the same time - Of course, It's more beneficial and speeds up the detoxing process.

I was wondering how to keep the pearl string from irritating the vaginal hole - Its best to cut the string after inserting the pearl, that way it doesn't become tangled with your hair, wax or closely shave your vagina and use the Salve as a daily moisturizer.

Can I urinate while using the Pearl - Of course! The pearl does not interfere with your everyday life, you can shower, bathe & go to the gym too.

Im Having a Hard Time Reaching My Cervix - Please get the pearl applicator and watch tutorials on feeling your cervix. Some women have allowed their husband to push their pearls up for her with their longest finger or their penis.

I've detoxed a few times, how many more do I need before testing negative or being cured - Herbal Suppositories are for your organic wellness. Doctors have not tested it to be sure it has any benefits to your health. Therefore, continue doing your detox and consider retesting for any virus or ailment. Speak with Your doctor about any changes in your health. You will feel a difference in your overall health as long as you continue with your detox.

How many cleanses should I order

-Start with 10, journal the progress, & order more as needed. You can always schedule a consultation and load your photos for review before your next order. There is no recommended dosage, every womb is different.

Can I use them if I'm breastfeeding, pregnant, or have a hymen intact

-The herbs in these pearls may circulate throughout your body, including your breast milk, consider pre-pumping. Pearls have the ability to break your hymen. If you are pregnant you can not use the Pearls, but you can use the other products on the site.

Can using this change my PH Balance

-Yes there is a possibility that using pearls over time will make your vagina sensitive to store-bought products and semen. Using the Yeast pearl can aid with Yeast Infections. Products are also made for Men - ScrotumDetox.com

I think I have a yeast infection

- this is your first time detoxing and what looks like Yeast is really your vagina discharging. Make sure you use your ion pads, salve, & soap during this time to complete your detox. If this is really a yeast infection, you may use a yeast pearl.

I have an IUD can I use them

- Due to the strong nature of our product's herbs there is a chance that your IUD could come out during the purging process. Prior to using the Pearl, feel for your IUD cord. IUD's have been known to dislodge and get lost in the uterus and cause damage. In 13 years, no one has reported an IUD issue while detoxing.

What do some people experience during the detox

- Some women feel mild cramping lasting no more than 15 minutes. Organ Detox Tea and Yoni Steaming or Using a Heating Pad is recommended and available for purchase. Some women experience itchiness, outbreaks, and a very sensitive area. We recommend the Skin Detox Kit or Mucous Pads, Numbing Pads, Sweet P Soap, Boil Balm and Powder - all available on the website.

During the detox, a coating will cover your vagina and range in color. the herbs in the pearls are many colors can can affectt he color of your discharge.

Can I use this on my menstrual cycle

- No you can not use this on your menstrual cycle. Use 3 days or more after your cycle has ended, or 10 days or more before cycle begins.

When can I have sex again and or can I have sex while cleansing

- Do not have sexual intercourse. You may resume intercourse once your detox has completed and there is no residual waste on your vagina.
