

Lesson 14

The Elder and the President

- The Line of the leader of God's movement
- The Line of the leader of Satan's movement

The leader of our movement, Parminder Biant, can be seen at several waymarks on the Reform line of the Priests. The leader of Satan's movement, Donald Trump, can also be seen at those very dates. We can line these waymarks up and see how close the track of error is to the track of truth. We know that our movement is the internal true stream, but we also know that the conservatives, headed by Trump are the external false stream; this sounds like mixing internal and external, so how can these lines line up? The answer is simple; our movement is on a reform line that is leading God's people to the end of the world. The conservatives, under Trump are also on a track to do Satan's bidding at the end of the world. The fact that you can line up the internal and external is also seconded by the fact that Trump can be represented by Demetrius, (in the line of Pyrrhus) and Demetrius symbolizes harvest, we know the harvest is at the end of the world (Matthew 13:39). So Trump, the bad stream, takes Satan's movement to the end of the world and our movement, the true stream, also goes to the end, therefore it is perfectly correct to line up the true internal stream with the false external stream.

The Line of the Leader of God's movement

2009

In 2009, Elder Parminder Biant traveled to Arkansas and presented. He presented The 2520 Revealed, which, to this day, is the most comprehensive study ever done on that subject. This was the beginning of his work.

2012

In 2012, Elder Parminder Biant predicted that there would be a Sunday law in 2014. He made this prediction in 2012 in Wales, only 2 years before 2014. However, it was rejected by the leadership and most of the movement. This year was a formalization so here a test began, there were two parts to this test: you had to receive the message of Elder Parminder and accept the leadership (at that time it was Elder Jeff Pippenger) or you would fail the test.

2013

In 2013, the movement experienced the activities of enemies: the Path of the Just. They began to visibly work in 2013, rejecting the message of 2014 and the leadership of the movement which eventually led to the first major split in the movement that started in this year.

2014

Elder Parminder, in 2012, had predicted that there would be a Sunday law in 2014 and his prediction was fulfilled. In that same year, the Path of the Just completely split from the movement.

2015

In 2015, Elder Parminder began to officially present. He taught first in the United Kingdom then he began traveling around the world later that year.

2016

On February 27, 2016, Parminder Biant was ordained an elder. The service was held at Lambert Fellowship in Arkansas, United States. It was conducted by Jeff Pippenger and two others who, along with him, are no longer in this movement. Elder Parminder was ordained alongside Elders Thabo and Marco. He was commissioned to teach this message around the world.

2018

In 2018, the Midnight Cry message was given by Elder Tess Lambert, first in Arkansas and then around the world. That message was a test, but it was not the only test. You also had to recognize a new leadership: Elder Parminder (and Elder Tess). This was a repeat of 2012, because both years are formalizations; in order to have passed the test and be on the right side after 11/9 you had to have accepted the Midnight Cry message and the new leadership.

2019

After the split that began in late 2019, Future for America began their work against this movement. They claimed that Elder Parminder Biant should no longer be the leader of the movement and Jeff Pippenger should. What they were trying to do was “impeach” and remove him, but he can’t be removed.

The Line of the Leader of Satan's movement

2009

In September of 2009, Donald Trump joined the Republican Party. Earlier, in March that year, Trump joined Twitter, which is his personal disinformation platform. He posted his very first tweet on May 4th and currently has over 70 million followers. Here he started preparing for his work.

2012

In 2012, the movement that was going to help Donald Trump get elected began. In England in 1993 SCL (Strategic Communication Laboratories) a company that uses false information to secretly manipulate people, was founded. They entered the United States this year to look for someone to hire them. They decided that they would work for the Republican Party. Obama had just got re-elected and they knew that they could not work for him because what they wanted to do was un-Constitutional and he supported the Constitution. An example of Obama supporting the Constitution, by not combining church and state, is that he refused to say that the USA was a nation "under God" when he recited the Gettysburg Address. SCL also knew that they couldn't work with the rest of the Democrat Party because they were all like him, so they decided to work with the Republicans, who don't mind trampling on the Constitution.

2013

In 2009, a former CIA (a US government agency) agent, Edward Snowden, was hired to work for the NSA (another government agency). In June of 2013, Snowden began releasing thousands of highly classified NSA documents to journalists. These Documents contained proof that the government had been spying on people and taking their information illegally. This was an act against the US leadership and also showed how he didn't like how the government worked. Also in this year, Cambridge Analytica was formed by SCL, this new company would, in the United States, do what SCL did. It was controlled by conservative Christians and they were going to manipulate Americans to change the government leaders to enforce their views.

2014

In 2014, Snowden's leaks about what the government was doing ended. Also in that year Cambridge Analytica developed the way they would manipulate Americans. They had thousands of pieces of information per person on about 126 million Americans and they used this information to create profiles of people so they could know what to use to change how they thought and acted. Cambridge Analytica began testing phrases like "build a wall" and "drain the swamp" to see if people liked them; these phrases Trump later used in his campaign to get people to like him. Cambridge Analytica's work in this year fulfilled Elder Parminder's prediction.

2015

In 2015, Donald Trump began his presidential campaign. He traveled around the United States, holding rallies and making speeches (in favor of the views of conservative Protestantism) so people would vote for him in 2016; in other words, he began teaching.

2016

In 2016, Cambridge Analytica began working for Trump by manipulating the American people to like him and hate Hilary Clinton. On November 9 of 2016, thanks to Cambridge Analytica and interference from Russia, Donald Trump was elected to be the president of the USA. Trump, being the last president of the Unites States, became the leader of Satan's movement.

2018

In 2018, The Trump Prophecy movie came out. This movie formalized the conservative Christian's view that Donald Trump was King Cyrus and was raised up of God to be the Christian leader of the USA.

2019

In 2019, the House of Representatives became fully fed up with Trump acting up. They decided to impeach him. On December 18, 2019, Donald Trump was impeached. They have continued to press on, seeking to completely remove him from office. However, from Daniel 11:2, we know that Trump is the final US president who will remain in office until the end.
