

Virtual Event Packages

Real Eyes Production understands the COVID-19 pandemic has changed the landscape of the event industry and continues to be a challenging time for audiovisual companies and freelancers. We hope that you are staying safe by practicing social distancing, washing your hands and looking toward the future.

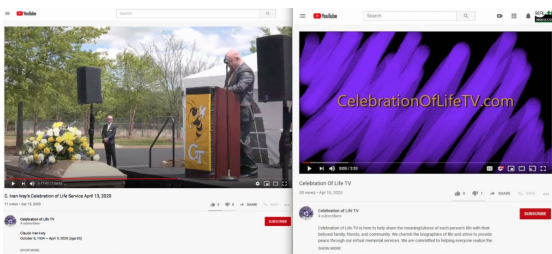

During this pandemic, we have pushed the boundaries of our technical infrastructure and creative services to adapt to the new COVID-19 era. WE are ready to move forward with web streaming, web casting, web conferencing, audience engagement and full production services.

VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

We offer multi-view, peer to peer conferencing software for your virtual conference. Using our platform, hosting a general session, multiple breakout rooms along with networking and on-line chat sessions are all possible.
