

Breeder's Cup Competition

The MCOA Breeders' Cup Competition is open to MCOA members only. In this competition each entry consists of a trio of dogs bred by the same breeder or co-breeder. Each trio is to be judged by a three-judge panel of experts on the breed using a point system.

RESULTS WILL BE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL UNTIL THE AWARDS BANQUET.

Purpose: In the Breeder's Cup Competition, the breeder or co-breeder is making a statement about his/her breeding program based on a group of three dogs.

- How consistent is the trio in the areas of overall impression, head, structure, movement, presence and consistency in breed type?
- How closely does the trio adhere to the Mastiff Standard?

The Breeder's Cup will be held before the actual judging of the Specialty classes. In this competition, each entry consists of a trio of dogs bred by the same breeder or co-breeder. Each trio is to be judged by a three-judge panel of experts on the breed, using a point system.

Entry in the MCOA Breeder's Cup Competition is open to MCOA members and Associate members in good standing only. *

In Good Standing – members and associate members that are not in a suspended status with AKC or MCOA

BREEDER'S CUP PROCEDURE

1. The total Breeder's Cup entry will not be brought into the ring together.
2. In numerical order, the first three trios of mastiffs will enter the ring. (Nine dogs at a time).
3. Each judge will take a trio for the hands-on exam.
4. The scoring is based on the presentation of the trio as a whole.
5. The judges will work through the first three trios until each judge has completed the hands-on examination of each dog.
6. Each dog in the trio will be gaited and restacked. Then each trio will move to the end of the line. Judges will complete the scoring (using one score sheet for each trio) and turn in those score sheets.
7. Once the trio has been judged they are excused and do not need to return to the ring.
8. Judging will continue in this manner until all groups are judged.
9. Score sheets are then turned over to the designated Statistician for final tabulation.

10. The Statistician will provide the results in a sealed envelope and the winners announced at the Awards Banquet.
11. The Top Five award winners will be posted in the MCOA Journal National edition.
12. Copies of the individual results for all entrants will be mailed after the national specialty so all winners receive their sheets.
