Starting on the back 9 at Lake Fairways

The usual scrum at the 1st tee. A lot of trash-talk

while Dave Fagan does his familiar Mick Jagger rooster strut.

Textbook follow-through by chipping master Dave Malmberg as he chips his way up the 10th fairway.

Bill Hilt displaying incredible concentration with his sand wedge to get himself out of trouble (again).

Larry Warner, known most for sinking a crucial putt when a match is on the line, watches as this putt gently curls towards the cup. We have to assume it went in.

Ken (Sarge) Shirley missed the green on the opening hole but relied on his fundamentals for a well-executed chip-n-run to stay in the match and survive the dreaded first hole.

Steve Andrews not known for his fashion sense arrived at the first tee with a plaid - striped combination faux-pas.

We're surprised that Carol let him out of the house like that.

Dave Broad nearly aced the difficult 13th hole with the ball landing inches from the flag and spun it back to 3 feet, then of course sunk the birdie putt. This guy is money under pressure.

Former engineer and math savant, Ron Boulay was just the guy for the job when Dave Leonard needed a volunteer to keep the scores and net out the handicaps.

Pressure mounts as huge galleries rush up the fairway to the 15th green hoping to catch a glimpse of their heroes in action.

Mike Craven holds the finish as he launches a mammoth drive sailing towards the 15th green

Rick Gagnier with a textbook follow through out of the bunker on 13. That was the swing he was looking for on the 1st and 2nd attempts.

Former Marshall, now competitor, Larry O'Brien reassuring new Marshall George Files to be patient, once the pressure is on, the bribes will come.

Dave Leonard hands Chuck Rhodes the A-Flight winner's check on 18 green.
