

June Facts

June is named after the Roman goddess Juno, patroness of marriage and the well-being of women.
It also comes from the Latin word juvenis meaning “young people.”

- 6. No other flag should be placed (or fly higher) than the US flag if flown together.
- 7. If there is a group of flags, the US flag shall be placed in the center and at the highest point.
- 8. If the US flag is flying with State flags (or that of cities, clubs, etc.) then the US flag shall always be higher. If they're on a flagpole, then the US flag should be hoisted first, and lowered last. In other words, no other flag is to fly above the US flag or to the right of the US flag.
- 9. If the flag is going to be displayed horizontally, then the union (blue area with the stars) is to be on the top left (peak). If your going to display the flag vertically, then the union should be on the top left.
- 10. When you fly the flag over a street, it should hang vertically. The stars should be to the North or to the East.
- 11. The flag should never be displayed upside down....except for a distress signal!
- 12. The flag should never have anything touch beneath it like the ground, water, floor, carpet, items of any kind.
- 13. The flag should never have placed upon it, nor on any part of it, nor attached to it any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture, or drawing of any nature.

DISPLAYING THE FLAG AT HALF STAFF

- 1. The flag is flown at half-staff (or half-mast) all day on the following holidays:

December 7 - Pearl Harbor Day

May 15 - Peace Officers Memorial Day

July 27 - Korean War Veterans Armistice Day

- 2. On Memorial Day, the flag is flown half-staff only until noon. Then it's raised to the top to be flown until sunset.
- 3. The US President can also order that the flag be flown at half-staff anytime someone of importance to the government dies, or a Governor of a State dies.
- 4. If you have a flag that can't be moved (on a pole like those on homes) and you're suppose to fly the flag at half-staff then you should attach a black ribbon to the top of the flag. Preferably, the black ribbon (or streamer) should be the same width as the stripes are.

PS....The 21-gun salute at a funeral represents the sum of the numbers for the year 1776.
