Here's What We're Playing

We're keeping it real and fun with two Tom Petty hits.... the upright "I Won't Back Down" and the laid back "Wildflowers". You're going to want both of these in your repertoire!

Do you want to show off your newest song during Open Mic? Just let Loryn know at the beginning of the session.

Also-- it's official! Woodbury Ukulele Band won national first place for Programs of Excellence for 2020, by the National Council on Aging. Thank you for being part of a movement to build community among generations by focusing on a common interest- ukuleles!

You can't stop the music

WUB in the time of coronavirus

The future of in-person live music rehearsals is uncertain right now. While we wait for future guidance, our plan is to continue with virtual meetups in June and July. We are hopeful we can have an outdoor, socially distant but in person WUB meetup beginning in August, but that has yet to be confirmed. We are actively thinking "outside the box" and looking for ways to continue WUB until the day we can all meet again as we did prior to the outbreak. Let us know your thoughts.
