A Note From Rick: Well, we're definitely getting a good taste of the hot summer weather. It's been a hot one lately, & that's made it a challenge to keep livestock healthy & gaining. This heat also puts a lot of pressure on the markets. The stress of handling & hauling livestock in this weather is amplified & they show it. Looks like the extreme heat is supposed to break over the weekend & milder temperatures are forecasted for next week. That break in the heat will be welcomed for sure! Have a great week & we'll see you soon at TLA!!
