A Note From Rick: Markets held up pretty well this week at TLA. Prices were steady to slightly lower in all markets. The calf market held steady again this week for the second week in a row. Butcher cows were slightly lower. Feeders were not tested, but we'll get a good test next week at the Special Feeder Sale. Thursday's Springer Sale had prices that were slightly lower than the August sale. As a whole, I didn't think the Springers were quite as good as they were last month & that maybe made some of the difference, as well as the lower calf & beef prices. Have a great week & a safe harvest! We've sure had beautiful weather for it. See you soon at TLA!!
