A Note From Rick: Markets were mixed on Tuesday at TLA. We had a nice herd of cows to offer & they sold really well, in my opinion. The majority of the cows brought anywhere from $2600 to $3000. There were several fresh cows from $3000 to $3500. The calf market was a little stronger this week across the board. Butcher cows were a little softer, but still very comparable to the last several weeks. We had a big run of Holstein open heifers this week as well. I didn't know what to expect as the cattle markets have gotten cheaper in most cases, but the top end springers & fresh cows haven't been affected as much. We had several groups of top-quality heifers that weren't as high as they were a few months ago, but still sold pretty well. The mid-grade & low-grade cattle were off quite a bit, which didn't surprise me. Have a great week & we hope to see you soon at TLA!
