A Note From Rick: Markets were steady to slightly stronger at TLA this week. Calf prices bounced back a little after last week's weaker market. Prices were slightly stronger and with the big run of calves that we had that says alot in my opinion. Butcher cows followed suit with a bigger run and better prices. Springers and fresh cows were steady with a light test. Feeders were not really tested this week. Have a great week and try to find a way to stay cool. Summer weather is here!
