A Note from Rick: Markets were stronger at TLA this week. Wow!! The beef market is on fire! We had a good, black steer weighing in at 1,600lbs bring $2.25/lb. & several others in the $2.20/lb. range. Good Holstein fats were bringing $1.80-$1.87/lb. Crossbred baby calves topped out at $10.00/lb. with the majority bringing $9.00-$10.00/lb. These prices are all-time highs at TLA. The butcher cow market is right there with it. Cows were as high as ever this week. We didn't have much to test the feeder cattle market this week, but springer heifers and fresh cows were steady. Friday & Saturday, we had the J&S Winter Pony Sale and had a really good turnout. It's always a joy to me seeing the younger generation take pride in their ponies and put in the work to participate in the pony sale. What a great way to kick off 2025 in the Horse Arena! Have a great week and we'll see you soon at TLA!!
