A Note From Rick: Markets were strong again this week at TLA. As I looked through the market report to confirm my thoughts at the end of the day Tuesday, I found that every category of the market report was a little stronger than the previous week. This has been a trend for a few weeks now. I do believe that the weather has played a part in this run-up, but I also think there are true fundamentals behind it when I look at prices in other areas of the country that haven't been affected by the weather. It will be interesting to see if we can maintain these prices as we get into milder weather and more cattle come to the market. We're starting out 2026 a lot like we did in 2025 with slow, steady gains week after week. Enjoy the milder weather, and we hope to see you soon at TLA!!
