A Note from Rick: Markets were very active on Tuesday at TLA. Prices were mixed in different categories but overall, I would call them steady to slightly lower. We had our Special Feeder Sale for November & there was a nice selection to offer. There were several groups of Holstein open heifers that sold very well. Prices were very comparable to the last several months. We also had several smaller groups of feeder steers. Prices were a little stronger on various sizes of steers compared to last month. Sounds like the weather is going to start acting a little more like Winter. Hard to believe it's Thanksgiving already, so I guess that's what we should expect. Hope you all have a great holiday weekend & we look forward to seeing you soon at TLA!!
