A Note From Rick: Markets were steady at TLA this week with very little change in our livestock prices on Tuesday. Calves were slightly higher along with springers & fresh cows. Feeders & dairy heifers were steady with a light run to test the market. Slaughter cows & cattle were steady to slightly higher. The market that made the biggest jump was the hay market. We had a good test with 23 loads & prices were as strong as they've been all year. With the 2025 growing season taking off quickly, I look for the activity in the hay market to slow down & prices to remain a little stronger. We're looking forward to a busy month of May in the Horse Arena. Hope to see you soon at TLA!!
