A Note From Rick: Markets were mixed this week at TLA. The calf market slipped a little further for the 3rd week in a row. Prices were slightly lower again and it's been a gradual decline compared to fat cattle prices which fell all at once a couple of weeks ago and have been steady to stronger recently. Butcher cows gained a lot of their losses back and were very strong this week. We had very little test on the feeder market and dairy cattle were steady to slightly softer. We'll get a good test on these two markets over the next couple of weeks with the Special Springer Sale on December 11th and the Special Feeder Sale on December 16th. We are looking forward to the Dutch Cross Classic this weekend and are expecting many quality consignments. The weather has definitely gotten colder and winter is here. Try to stay warm out there. Have a great week and we hope to see you soon at TLA!
