A Note From Rick: Markets continue to strengthen at TLA this week; across the board prices are stronger. The two markets that showed the most improvement were the calf market & the slaughter markets. The springer & fresh cow markets were very strong & will get a good test next week at the Special Springer Sale. Feeders had a very light test. We're very busy in the office taking consignments for the Fall sales that are right around the corner. September & October are shaping up to be very exciting at TLA! Hope to see you here! Have a great week!!
