A Note from Rick: Markets were very strong at TLA this week. Prices were higher from start to finish on Tuesday. We had a nice offering of Springers that sold very well. We only had a few Fresh Cows, but again, they sold well. The calf market was slightly stronger and has been slowly creeping up week after week. The feeder market was light and untested. Slaughter cattle and slaughter bulls were stronger throughout, but the big highlight of the day was the butcher cow market. Wow!! Cows were high from top to bottom. The better end brought from $85.00 - $100.00 with a few over $100.00, which is really good. The number that stuck out to me was the $77.00 average on all the cows sold. Not sure if we can expect to sustain prices quite this high, but the market is definitely short for the time being and I look for strong prices to continue. We're looking forward to the Benefit Horse Pull and Stallion Presentation coming up on Saturday, February 11th. Hope to see you all here at TLA!!
