A Note from Rick: Markets were steady for the most part this week at TLA, despite the temperatures dropping drastically. Tuesday was a bit of a slow day due to weather conditions. Markets were steady to slightly stronger throughout the day. The calf market remains strong and we saw a slight increase in butcher cow prices. Thursday's Special Springer Sale was very active. We had a wide selection of heifers to offer & from top to bottom I thought they sold very well. This market continues to be very strong and I still look for prices to creep higher moving forward due to a tighter and higher supply of heifers on the open market. We're starting to gear up for the J&S Winter Pony Auction. We've got a great selection of consignments in the catalog and are looking forward to seeing you all on the 27th at TLA! Have a great week and stay warm and safe!
