A Note from Rick: Markets were steady in some categories & stronger in others this week at TLA. Tuesday's markets were steady for the most part; the calf market was the only real highlight of the day. Calves were stronger across the board with the majority of the 85-110lbs Holstein bull calves ranging from $3.20 to $3.70/lb. The Angus cross calves ranged from $4.25 to $5.00/lb. This market has been a little up & down the last few weeks, but was very strong this week. Thursday's Special Springer Sale was very strong as well. Prices were slightly higher compared to a month ago, but I felt the market was more consistent throughout. Market averages on the top end didn't change much at all, but the overall average was nearly $50.00 higher. The weather sure changed on us! All that nice, warm, dry weather we were bragging about turned to cool and wet. Fall is in the air! See you soon at TLA!!
