A Note from Rick: Markets were steady this week at TLA, no big changes to speak of in the markets. Springers & fresh cows continue to have good demand. The calf market holds steady as well with Holstein heifer calves ranging from $100 - $175. Holstein bull calves weighing 85lbs. and up, range from $3.00/lb. to $3.50/lb. Crossbred calves are ranging around $4.00/lb. to $5.00/lb. The hay market is starting to pick up a little as we head into Winter. The better-quality hay is ranging from $225/ton to $300/ton. This has been consistent for several weeks now & looks to be the trend. We finished up a busy month in the horse arena here at TLA. The horse sales all went very well. Prices were not quite as strong as they were a year ago, but all in all, consignors were pleased. It's been several years of prices on a steady climb, & a correction was expected at some point. Hope you all have a great Thanksgiving! See you soon at TLA!!
