A Note from Rick: Markets were steady for the most part this week at TLA. Tuesday, markets were very comparable to a week ago. Butcher cows & fat cattle continue to struggle compared to a month ago. Hopefully after the holidays we will see these markets bounce back a little. The calf market remains steady & hasn't shown the drop in price like the feeders and fats. Thursday's Springer Sale was a little bigger than it's been for a while. We had right at 300 head of Springers and that put a little added pressure on prices. All in all, I though heifers sold very well. The top end wasn't quite as high as last month, but overall, I thought the market was very strong. Can't believe it's Christmas already! Where does the time go? From all of us here at TLA, we'd like to wish you & your family a Merry Christmas and we hope to see you soon at TLA!
