A Note from Rick: Markets bounce back strong across the board this week at TLA. The hay market continues to slowly gain strength. We had a good variety of hay to offer and had several loads from $220-$285/ton. The calf market was much more active this week, compared to a week ago. Angus cross calves were very strong and Holsteins seemed to follow the trend. Butcher cows were stronger as well, along with Holstein steers. Thursday's special springer sale brought a stronger market as well. We had a very nice bunch of heifers to offer, and prices were very consistent throughout the sale. This market has been a little weaker and more inconsistent over the last couple of months, but I'm not surprised to see it bounce back the way it did on Thursday. We had another successful sale this past Friday and Saturday with the Dutch Cross Classic. We had a great lineup of horses each day, along with a great crowd. We look forward to seeing you at TLA!!
