A Note from Rick: Markets were steady this week at TLA. I'd say the highlight again this week during Tuesday's sale was the butcher cow market. This market has been on fire lately! I was questioning whether this market could sustain last week's prices and it not only maintained those prices, it actually exceeded them slightly. Thursday, we had the February Springer Sale; we had a very nice group of fresh heifers again this month that sold for $2300 - $2500. This month, we had a little bit of a lighter run of Springers, and prices were very similar to the January sale. Our Annual Benefit Horse Pull and Stallion Presentation was held on Saturday and we had a great crowd! We were able to raise around $16,000 for local charity and we want to thank the local community for their generosity. It was definitely a great day at TLA and we hope to see you soon!
