A Note from Rick: Markets were a bit up & down this week at TLA. Calf prices took a big jump higher and were definitely the highlight of the day on Tuesday. The majority of Holstein bull calves weighing from 85lbs to 105lbs brought between $2.50 & $3.00/lb. Heifer calves & crossbred calves were higher as well. Dairy cattle, Springers & Fresh Cows were steady but have seemed to have slowly slipped off the highs we had a few months ago, along with butcher cows and fat cattle. No big changes in the market, but not quite as strong as a few weeks ago. Overall, prices are very good & I look for that to continue with green grass right around the corner. Speaking of green grass, it's April now and it's high time for some warmer temperatures & a little less moisture. We definitely did not have very much sunshine in March, so maybe Mother Nature will make up for that in April. Have a great week & we hope to see you soon at TLA!
