A Note from Rick: Markets continue in the upward direction. Dairy cattle prices remain strong & have crept up slightly due to strong beef and calf prices. Beef prices jumped higher again this week with lots of butcher cows over $1.00/lb. Fat cattle, both Holsteins & Natives, were stronger as well. We held the Special Feeder Sale for the month of April this week & we had a nice selection of cattle to offer. We had an excellent group of Holstein steers along with a couple smaller groups of black heifers & steers that sold very well. On the Holstein heifer side, we had several groups of various sizes & short-breds. Prices were definitely stronger than the previous couple of months. Across the board, we are seeing prices higher than we've seen in several years. Even though input costs are higher, it's nice to have a little excitement in the livestock industry again. See you at TLA!
