A Note from Rick: Markets were stronger this week at TLA. It sounds like a broken record but prices were higher in nearly all categories on Tuesday and Thursday. The calf market along with the butcher cow market were both highlights of the Tuesday sale. Both of these markets have continued to creep higher over the last couple weeks. Thursday's springer sale was also very strong, across the board prices were $200-$300 higher than a month ago with nearly half of the cattle selling for over $3,000. At first glance this seems a little shocking, but when you look back at butcher cow prices along with calf prices it is really not out of line. We have never seen prices like this in the dairy industry and it sure appears to me that they are here to stay for a while. Have a great week and we hope to see you at TLA!
