A Note from Rick: Markets were steady this week in all categories at TLA. Nothing stood out to me on Tuesday; just more of the strong prices we have been seeing throughout the day. The consistency of prices has been with all the markets really for quite some time now. I'm not sure we've ever had a stretch like this and it does not seem to be letting up. Market activity normally slows down quite a bit through the Summer and a lot of times prices will tend to lag a little during this period. It will be interesting to see if prices hold strong as we head into these summertime markets. Have a great week and we hope to see you soon at TLA!
