A Note from Rick: Markets were steady again this week at TLA. Butcher cows & bull calves were our two most active markets on Tuesday. In both markets, prices were nearly identical to last week. Prices have been consistently strong in these markets for quite some time now & all signs point to this continuing. There has been a lot of stir in the industry over the last couple weeks due to the new regulations placed on the movement of lactating dairy cows across state lines. For our markets here at TLA & around our area, the movement of these cattle to slaughter, now requires an Owner Shipper Statement from our market to the packer. That paperwork is taken care of by the office staff at TLA. This has not affected prices at all & I do not anticipate any change moving forward. Have a safe & happy week! We hope to see you soon at TLA!!
