A Note from Rick: More of the same from markets on Tuesday at TLA. Butcher cows and baby calves were both higher again this week. These two markets just continue to creep higher & higher. These prices are extreme & I think they're nearing the top. We're entering into the summer heat & that generally takes some of the top off of these markets. I don't see any big changes coming, but maybe a slight correction, which would still leave very strong prices. The June Special Feeder Sale was a very light run, which was not a big surprise. There's not a lot of feeders around that are in loose hands & I look for these lighter runs to continue through the Summer. Have a great week & enjoy the abundant sunshine! Hope to see you soon at TLA!
