Sold for $10,000!

A Note from Rick: Markets were strong at TLA this week. Calves & feeders were both steady to stronger. Butcher cows & fats were stronger again compared to a week ago. We had a good offering of springers & fresh cows this week that sold very well. The dairy cattle market has seemed to settle in at this new level. We saw a big jump in prices a couple months ago & they've crept slightly higher ever since. All of these markets seem to be very strong & creeping even higher with no signs of backing up. Not sure how long this will last, but I'm pretty sure it won't last forever. The recent rain has been welcomed & has sure made things greener. This will definitely make a big difference in the pastures & hay fields, along with the row crops as we were getting a little dry. Have a great holiday weekend & be safe! See you soon at TLA!!
