A Note from Rick: Mixed markets at TLA this week. The hay market was a little stronger. We are starting to see a little more activity in this market over the last couple of weeks, but overall there is very little change in prices. The calf market took another slide downward this week and from the way it sounds this is going to continue for the short term at least. Slaughter cows rebounded a little from the previous 2 weeks of weaker prices. Cows were $3-$5 higher this week for the most part with the biggest gains in price on the lower end cows. We are very excited about the upcoming TLA Classic this weekend. There are hitches coming from across the country and bringing their best to compete in our outdoor show ring. This is our second year to host this event and we are looking forward to a great week. New this year is the "Topeka Graduate Cart Class". Eligible horses are those that have been purchased in the ring at the TLA Dome. The payout for that class alone is going to be $10,000. The class will be judged by a panel of judges and all will be able to see Topeka's finest compete for a shot at the title "Topeka Graduate Champion". Make sure you are at TLA to see it, because I'm sure you will hear about it!
