A Note from Rick: Markets were steady to stronger at TLA this week. Dairy cows and springers were lightly tested and I'd call them steady with recent prices. The feeder market was not tested, but definitely will be at the Special Feeder Sale next week. Butcher cows were a little stronger along with Holstein steers. The calf market was a little softer again. That makes two weeks in a row of slightly lower prices. The Draft Horse Committee is working overtime taking in consignments and putting together the Fall Draft Horse Catalog. The Friesian consignments came flying in and the book is full. We look for both of these sales to have some great quality offered. The Bi-monthly Driving Horse Auction was moved back a week this month because of schedule conflicts with other sales. Please note the new date. The J&S Labor Day Pony Auction is right around the corner along with the Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale and The Morgan Classic. It's hard to believe it's that time of year already for the Fall sales. They will be here before we know it. Make sure you mark calendars to visit TLA in the next few months- it's definitely where the action is!
