A Note from Rick: Markets were mixed this week at TLA. We had our Special Feeder Sale for September on Tuesday & we had a nice variety of cattle to offer. We had several groups of Holstein & Angus Holstein cross steers that sold very well. We also had a nice mix of various sized Holstein heifers. Feeders of any kind are in high demand with the strong fat cattle & springer prices & it definitely showed on Tuesday. The calf market was higher again on Tuesday as well. I look for this to continue to creep higher as the demand in this market is very strong & supplies are limited. The butcher cow market slipped back just a little compared to last week. The bigger, better cows were steady but the leaner, slower cows were a little lower for sure. It's pretty normal this time of the year to see the butcher cow prices back off a little with higher volumes of cattle coming to market. Have a great week & enjoy this beautiful Fall weather! See you soon at TLA!
