A Note from Rick: Markets were steady to stronger this week at TLA. We had a good run of Springers and Fresh Cows on Tuesday. Prices were strong and the demand seems to continue for good quality dairy cattle. The calf market was steady this week. This market seems to have slight ups and downs week to week, but overall hasn't changed much over the last several months. Butcher cows bounced back a little after last week's drop in prices. Cows were $3-$5 higher this week while fat cattle were steady. We had a big selection of Holstein Feeder Heifers on Tuesday. Prices were very comparable to the last several months with the demand for good quality heifers being strong. I look for this market to be more active over the next few months. We're looking forward to an exciting month of October here at TLA. On the 1st we're hosting a Horse Pull and, on the 8th, we're hosting a Halter Show. The 14th & 15th will be the Friesian Fall Classic and then the 24th through the 28th will be the Fall Draft Sale. We look forward to seeing you at TLA!!!
