A Note from Rick: What a beautiful stretch of Fall weather! The harvest season is soon to be in full swing & according to most everyone I've talked to the crops are very good. Not a big surprise as things have looked good all Summer. Markets this week at TLA were steady for the most part. Butcher cows were a little softer, while bull calves were a little stronger. Numbers are starting to pick up a little, which is very common for this time of year. We're putting together the final preparations for the Friesian Fall Classic as well as our Fall Draft Sale. Catalogs will be out soon & we're very excited about the month of October at TLA! We hope to see you soon!!
