A Note from Rick: Markets were a little softer at TLA this week. The butcher cow market was $3 to $5 lower this week. This didn't come as a surprise to me. Live cattle as well as feeder cattle on the board of trade have both taken a pretty good slide downward over the last several weeks. Cash prices have followed that trend, especially in the calf market. The butcher cow market has held very strong through this period, until this week. Although prices didn't fall very much, it's definitely the first slip in this market for a long time. Prices have been on the rise for the entire year & it appears that we've seen the peak. The pony sale on Monday was a success & we're off & running in the Horse Arena with an exciting Fall schedule. Have a great week & we look forward to seeing you soon at TLA!
