A Note from Rick: Mixed markets at TLA this week. Butcher cows & fat cattle were steady to slightly lower compared to a week ago. The calf market bounced back very strong after last week's slightly weaker market. We had very little test in the feeder market. Coming into Fall with cattle coming off grass, I look for more feeders to become available. Our Special Feeder Sale for September will be on the 19th and I expect a good test on that day. Fall harvest is in full swing for corn silage & several other specialty crops. I'd like to wish everyone a safe & plentiful harvest over the next couple of months. Hope to see you soon at TLA!!
