A Note From Rick: It was a busy week at TLA! Tuesday markets were steady for the most part across the board. The calf market was slightly stronger while the butcher cow market was slightly lower. Thursday's Springer Sale was another record-setting sale. We hosted the Haiti Heifer Auction along with our Special Springer Sale & that brought a few more buyers to the market along with about forty head of extra springers & fresh cows. The Haiti Benefit cattle definitely brought a slight premium, with the money going to a great cause, but prices on our normal consignment of springers were a little stronger than the May sale. On Friday & Saturday we held the Seymour Draft Horse Sale. I'd say the market was very similar to the Spring Draft Horse Sale with several big highlights & a wide range of prices from top to bottom. Have a great week & we hope to see you soon at TLA!!
