A Note From Rick: Markets were weaker this week at TLA compared to last week (I haven't been able to say that much this year). Butcher cows were $5 - $8 lower, but fat cattle were steady. The calf market was considerably lower as well. Springers & fresh cows continued to be strong with very little change. This doesn't come as a big surprise to me simply because prices can't just keep going up without a little correction now & then, & we haven't seen a correction in this market for a while. Have a great week & enjoy the beautiful weather. See you soon at TLA!!
